May I Help You?

Leader: Steve Lennon

Coordinator: Dylan Fijal

Yes! We have made it through a ragged, snowy, cold winter all the way to the merry month of May. We can now put away the parkas and snow shovels and start thinking about things green-ing and growing. May Day – a time for change, a time for hope, and a time to reactivate our connection with the earth.

Forced to be Brave: Images of my Camino.

Leader: Lise Desrochers

Coordinator: Sarah Cummings

"You're so brave", the dentist said as he handed me a new toothbrush after my first ever cleaning and exam. I didn't want to be brave, but Mom said I had to go.

"This is going to be a long courageous journey", the doctor said to Ernest and I as we got the dreaded diagnosis. Courageous? I just wanted to scream.

"You're so strong", people said as they hugged me at the celebration of life. I didn't want to be strong. I wanted him back.
